

PROGRAM

5th National Conference on Adolescent Health (with international participation)
Dedicated to 20th Anniversary of activity of NEOVITA National Resource Centre in Youth
Friendly Health Services
“Learn to live in new reality”

Republic of Moldova, November 10 to 11, 2022
Labour Institute, 10, Zimbrului Street, Chisinau Municipality + ON-LINE

Day I, November 10, 2022 – Health services for adolescents
Moderators: Victoria Ciubotaru, Galina Lesco
Time	Session Title		Description
8.30-9.00	Registration of the participants		Hol
9.00 – 9.30	Opening Session (State authorities, Donors,) Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation		Polyvalent Hall
9.30 – 11.00	Session nr.2. How to act in the best interest of adolescents in health care in crisis context. Plenary reports: WHO policies and recommendations related to adolescent health care, Dr. Valentina Baltag, WHO HQ, Geneva Innovations and lessons learned of NEOVITA National Resource Centre in YFHS in 20 years. Impact of YFHS in adolescent health in Republic of Moldova Dr. Galina Lesco, NRCYFHS NEOVITA, Chisinau Panel experts: Tatiana Zatic, Ministry of Health Prof. Olga Cernetchi, ProRector SUMF „N.Testemițanu” Angela Capcelea, UNICEF Moldova, 2 YK volunteers Q&A from the participants Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation		Polyvalent Hall
11.00- 11.30	Coffee break		1 st floor (lobby)
11.30 – 12.30	Session nr 3. Adolescent mental health care in crisis context. Plenary lectures The impact of the global world’s transformation on the mental health of adolescents: How to respond	Youth Volunteers’ Reporting and planning workshop ro (no translation)	Parallel sessions Polyvalent Hall (for specialists) Conference Room (for volunteers)

	Prof. Pierre-Andre Michaud, Lausanne University, Switzerland Emergencies in mental health of adolescents in crisis condition – new national protocol Dr. Jana Chihai, SUMF “N. Testemițanu” Plenary discussions Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation	moderator- Cristina Hristescu, NRCYFHS NEOVITA
12.30 -13.30	Session nr.4. Simpozia. Adolescent sexual and Reproductive Health in crisis context Socio-behavioural interventions in STI/HIV prevention: WHO perspective. Dr. Igor Toskin, WHO HQ, Geneva Role of multi-disciplinary approach in antenatal, intra-natal and post-natal care for adolescents’ mother. Draft of national standard of care. Corina Iliade-Tulbure, SUMF “N. Testemițanu” HPV vaccination importance among adolescents girls and boys. Irina Sagaidac, SUMF “N. Testemițanu” Plenary discussions Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation	Youth Volunteers’ Reporting and planning workshop ro (no translation) (part II)	Parallel sessions Polyvalent Hall (for specialists) Conference Room (for volunteers)
13.30 – 14.30	Lunch		Restaurant
14.30 – 15.30	Session nr.5. School medicine – quo Vadis? Can be interlinked SHS with YFHS? Plenary reports: WHO Vision on School Health Services development Dr. Valentina Baltag, WHO HQ, Geneva	Workshop for young volunteers - social activism skills training ro (without translation) Olga Bostan, Master's student, University of	Parallel sessions Polyvalent Hall (for specialists) Conference Room (for volunteers)

	Improving school health by the specific training of school health doctors. The example of France Emmanuelle Godeau, Paris, France Situation in SHS Moldova Galina Lesco, NRCYFHS, NEOVITA Plenary discussions Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation	Leipzig, Germany, former YK volunteer
15.30 – 16.30	Session 6. Gender-based violence among adolescents – why more attention is needed from professionals in the field in a crisis context? Plenary report: How to act in the interest of adolescents who respond to VSB/PSEA in the context of a humanitarian crisis? Maria Scicchitano, WHO International Consultant in GBV/PSEA Panel experts – Daniela Simboteanu, President of CNPAC, Victoria Ciubotaru, Mother and Child Institute Plenary discussions Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation	Workshop for young volunteers - social activism skills training (continue) ro (no translation)	Parallel sessions Polyvalent Hall (for specialists) Conference Room (for volunteers)
16.30- 17.00	Session 7. Plenary debriefing of the parallel sessions (feedback to and from YK volunteers) +on-line Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation
17.00-18.00	Exhibition organized by YFHC/YK		1st floor (lobby)
18.00	Reception dedicated 20th Anniversary of NRCYFHS NEOVITA		Polyvalent Hall

Day II, November 11, 2022 – Health education for adolescents
Moderators: Larisa Chirev, Galina Lesco
Time	Session Title		Description
9.00 – 11.00	Session 8 Adolescent health behaviors and access to health education Adolescent health behaviors in crisis context - according to data of HBSC Moldova 2022, Calina Lesco, PI HBSC MOLDOVA, NRCYFHS NEOVITA Correspondence of the existing school curriculum with the International Standards of Complex Education on the subjects of sexual-reproductive health Ludmila Sîrbu, UNFPA Moldova Cristina Cherciu, NRCYFHS NEOVITA Online resources for Lifelong learning and development of professionals who work with adolescents and youth Vitali Nikanovich (Belarus/Georgia). Head of EduHub Example of an extra-curricular health education program through the YK Volunteer Program. The impact of volunteering on mental health. Crina Țicu, Volunteer Coordinator YK NEOVITA Plenary discussions +on-line Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation		Polyvalent Hall
11.00- 11.30	Coffee break		hol
11.30 – 13.00	Session 9 Symposium Parental programs for adolescents and pre-adolescents Preventing child mental health problems through optimization of parenting programs - RISE as an example Prof. Nina Heinrichs, University of Bremen, Germany Parenting programs (PLH) in crisis – parents chat online Dr Jamie M. Lachman, University of Oxford, UK Fathers Club Program. Vasile Coroi, CIDDC, Moldova	HBSC preliminary study validation workshop (Professionals, YK volunteers) - Formulation of preliminary recommendations ro (without translation) moderator – Natalia Gandrabur, NRCYFHS NEOVITA	Parallel sessions Polyvalent Hall (for specialists) Conference Room (for volunteers)

	How to discuss with parents about HPV vaccination of adolescent girls and boys Dr. Nadejda Bordian, NRCYFHS NEOVITA +on-line Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch		Restaurant
14.00- 15.30	Session 10. Health promoting school initiative Plenary report: The results of the Initiative of Schools that Promote Health in the Republic of Moldova Natalia Silitrari, National Coordinator of the HPS Initiative, NAPH Panel experts: Mariana Goraș, Ministry of Education and Research 1 representative of the District Department of Education, 1-2 School Directors who promote Health, 1 YK center representative +on-line Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation Official offering of certificates for health promoting schools	Formulation of proposals for the resolution of the Conference Declaration of the municipal Youth Forum in health promotion Natalia Gandrabur, Cristina Hristescu, NRCYFHS NEOVITA ro (without translation)	Parallel sessions Polyvalent Hall (for specialists) Conference Room (for volunteers)
15.30 – 16.00	Session 11. Plenary debriefing of the parallel sessions Closing Session. Approval of the conference's resolution. +on-line Ro/ru/eng simultaneous translation		Polyvalent Hall
16.00	Coffee break		hol